

August—Recycle

From <http://www.why-recycle.com/> “Our planet demonstrates every day that just how important it is that all of us participates in recycling. Every single one of us needs to play their part in healing the planet of its lost and damaged resources. We are responsible for the damage and now we must make daily efforts to replenish and revitalize our planet. It may seem completely mundane and almost laughable today to even consider whether or not to recycle in your home; the reasons why I should recycle are always evident to me, such as;

Recycling is a wonderfully simple and convenient way to participate and take an active role in working towards low-impact living. Everyone can help from toddlers to octogenarians. Simple things like using reusable bags instead of plastic bags at the market or simply use a rag instead of paper towels. Literally, almost everything we use today can be recycled in some way – be creative.”
