

Gunnison Country Historic Preservation Commission

July, 2008

Members Present: Dave Primus, Lyda Hardy, Laura Easley, Lynn Card, Lee Ann Mick, Paul Gery

The minutes were read and approved as read. Lee Ann said that Joe Danni was very excited about the books on the school and wanted to know where he could find more copies. So far we don't have them out yet but we hope to put them at the libraries and the museum.

The first item on the agenda is the twin bridges. Dave emailed Marlene at the County Road & Bridge office. Marlene told Dave that there is a process before they can get okay on the bridge. Debbie talked to her also and it is not on the 10 year County Plan yet. She indicated that there are much worse bridges on the list. We will keep an eye on it.

The next item was the Great Wall. It was tabled until Lyda was here to go over again what she had learned when she went to the training in Ft. Collins. Section 106 was discussed. It has been decided that we will let this go for now. Making it a district is not going to work. Paul is going to ask when he goes back to Denver and see if there is any other angle we could work from. Debbie will make Paul a copy of the packet so he will have it with him. The letter has been approved by the County Attorney to send into the Lucky Jack Mining Company. Debbie will get it printed and to Dave to sign.

Schools were next on the agenda. She emailed Debbie the packet and she printed for Laura to look at so that we can be sure nothing got lost. There are couple of things they are going to adjust and then finalize the copy. Dave read the preliminary introduction. It sounds great. Laura is going to email the letter to Debbie.

Lee Ann filed out the nomination form for the Sage Mtn. School. She has everything done and is just waiting on the last couple of letters of recommendation to go with it. After she has the packet together she will call Debbie to mail the packet.

Paul wants to go interview the school teacher in Marble. Maybe it could set for sometime in the early fall. We don't have a set list of questions. Sometimes it works best to let the person you are interviewing start and then lead into other questions by what the person says.

Janice resigned from the commission. She stated she just doesn't have enough time for the commission. Debbie talked to Ruth about reapplying. She might consider it if we understand she doesn't have to be at the winter meetings. We decided we could have a phone conf. on the bad winter days. Debbie will let the County know that we need to advertise for the position and we will see what happens.

There was no further business to come before the commission, so Dave adjourned the meeting.

The next meeting will be August 20, 2008
