SERVSAFE FOOD PROTECTION MANAGER TRAINING

What is ServSafe?
ServSafe is a comprehensive course on food safety that is administered by the National Restaurant Association.

Who should attend?
Managers of retail food establishments who are not currently certified as Food Protection Managers.

Why attend?
The updated Colorado Food Code requires all retail food establishments to have a Certified Food Protection Manager on hand and exerting active managerial control at all times. ServSafe participants who score 75% or above on the exam obtain this required certification as Food Protection Managers.

How much does it cost?
A full-day workshop costs $115/person, which includes 7 hours of training, a ServSafe textbook, and a proctored exam. Other training options are available upon request.
